

ACLA QUARTERLY MEETING, MARCH 27TH, 2018 AT Northeast branch, NHC PUBLIC LIBRARY

4-5:30 P.M.

PRESENT: JACOB DEININGER-CFCC, ELISABETH GARNER-UNCW, LISA COATS-UNCW, JOAN BLOOM-CFCC, JIM CLARK-CFCC

Conference Planning: 4:00-4:30

Lisa heard from Pomegranate Books and Occasions Just Write, and they have agreed to donate items for the conference.

Possible refunds for one attendee (Susan DeMarco-NHCPL), and partial refunds for two presenters who have already paid full price-$25-(we may have decided just not to pursue this since they haven't asked about refunds? (Correct me if I'm wrong, Jacob!)

Lisa will check with Anne P. to see if Randall can "contribute" to ACLA by allowing us to print the programs and certificates for the ACLA conference at Randall Library.

It would cost Jacob approximately $35 for him to print the certificates at CFCC-if so, he would bill ACLA for the amount.

Jacob could also send Lisa and Elisabeth the file of registrants for us to potentially use to print the Certificates.

Lisa and Elisabeth will go to Costco on April 17th, Tuesday, to shop for conference related items, food, plates, napkins, drinks, etc.

For the actual meeting: 4:30-5:30

Jacob set up a WebEx session on Summon implementation with NC Live

- Around 1,000 libraries worldwide use Summon, launched in 2009
- Discussed the various aspects of Summon and what it can do to help with search results for individual libraries
- Can customize the interface to your library

Lisa then asked Jacob to show UNCW Library's home page and how our search box leads to a "Bento Box" style of breaking up results into categories: "Books" "Videos" "Journal Articles" etc.
