About Azalea Coast Library Association

The Azalea Coast Library Association (ACLA) is a professional organization founded to promote and advocate for Southeast North Carolina libraries through activity, communication, and engagement among those involved with or interested in libraries.

Our membership includes librarians, library staff, library school students, and library-adjacent workers based in (or retired from) public, academic, and special libraries or school media centers. Membership is open to all library personnel from the following counties: Bladen, Brunswick, Carteret, Columbus, Cumberland, Duplin, New Hanover, Onslow, Pender, Robeson, and Sampson, although library personnel outside these areas are also welcome to participate.

We share information via email, social media, and meetings (face-to-face and virtual). Please like us on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/azaleacoastlibraryassociation>)! And make sure you are included on both listservs, one hosted by MailChimp (for newsletters) and the other by the University of North Carolina Wilmington (for approved member postings). Email azaleacoastlibraries@gmail.com for more help with the listservs.

ACLA wants to grow! So please encourage your colleagues to participate by sharing organizational newsletters and meeting notices. Thank you!
